SPECIAL-T LINK FLIP & NEST TABLES

Cooperative purchasing utilizes a lead agent to competitively solicit a master agreement that contains language to be used nationally or by a state, thus providing numerous benefits to its members, including but not limited to:

- Money savings
- Time savings
- Expertise in the solicitation process
- Ability to obtain higher quality products
- Limited need for personnel to run and review solicitations
- Convenience
- Lower prices due to the combined purchasing volume of members
- Well-written and reviewed Terms and Conditions

NCPA's Master Agreement solicitation process

The lead agent competitively solicits national master agreement for use by public agencies

The solicitation is advertised nationally for a minimum of 30 days

The solicitation has language that allows "piggybacking" for states whose laws allow intergovernmental contract use

The lead agency evaluates the responses and competitively awards contracts
